

Free of harassment, discrimination and bullying policy

We are committed to ensure a workplace free of harassment, discrimination and bullying. This commitment is based upon ensuring that our business complies with equal employment opportunities, human rights and anti-discrimination laws. We are also committed with providing a working environment for all employees and encouraging good working relationships between all the parties.

To achieve this, Camaco Consulting will ensure information is provided to ensure appropriate workplace arrangements.

Harassment or discrimination will not be tolerated at Camaco Consulting. If, after investigation by the nominated company officer, it is found that harassment or discrimination has taken place, the person responsible will be reprimanded and/or disciplinary action will take place. In serious cases dismissal may be the result. Harassment involving assault, may constitute a crime as defined in the Australian Crimes Act.

Workplace harassment, discrimination and bullying is also against Camaco Consulting's Occupational Health and Safety (OHS) policy, as it can potentially create an unsafe work environment.

A breach of this policy will be dealt with the same manner as a breach of any OHS policy, and standards disciplinary and legal procedures will apply.

We encourage all our staff to seek not only quality but also harmony and safety into their everyday lives.
